The Sharp Shooters in the Community

Stories by Senior Master Sgt Paula Macomber | 152nd Airlift Wing Public Affairs

VISITING STARBASE, HENDERSON

HENDERSON, NV (AP) — Members of the 232nd Combat Training Squadron, “the Sharp Shooters” visited STARBASE Henderson for a unique event: “Lunch, Learn & Play” on May 23, 2024.

Among the attendees were Master Sgt. Bryan Bledsaw, Senior Airman Daisy Vasquez, Tech. Sgt. Edna Wright, Master Sgt. Berenice Domenzain-Rodriguez, and Staff Sgt. Lea Williams, a team dedicated to bridging the gap between education and real-world applications of STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics).

The event, aimed to introduce participants to the array of STEM activities offered to 5th graders throughout the academic year. These activities not only engage young minds but also provide valuable insights into potential STEM careers.

Throughout the day, the Sharp Shooters received hands-on learning experiences in various STEM fields. From robotics to aerospace engineering, attendees were treated to a glimpse of the dynamic and interactive nature of STEM education.

“This “Lunch, Learn & Play” was more than just an event,” Chief Master Sgt. Gerardo Navarro, assigned to the 232nd Combat Training Squadron, said, “This was a testament to the power of collaboration and community engagement in shaping the future of STEM education. The Sharp Shooters’ participation and shared vision for nurturing young minds, serves as a beacon of hope, illuminating the path towards a brighter, more innovative future for generations to come.”

Incidentally, the military personnel from the 232nd, volunteer as mentors throughout the school year providing the STARBASE students with real-world insights, sharing their experiences and expertise to inspire the next generation of innovators and problem solvers.

Created in 1991, STARBASE’s primary focus is to foster a passion of learning in the field of science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) in fifth graders attending Title 1 schools. The students participate in a five-day curriculum with 25 hours of academic instruction and multiple challenging “hands-on, minds-on” STEM activities. The students also get the opportunity to interact with military personnel to explore different career paths and observe STEM being applied first-hand.

MATT KELLY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL AND THE SHARP SHOOTERS

LAS VEGAS, NV (AP) — Members of the 232nd Combat Training Squadron, the “Sharp Shooters,” attend Matt Kelly Elementary School for “Mentoring Mondays” bi-weekly throughout the school year.

Master Sgt. Berenice Domenzain-Rodriguez, Tech. Sgt. Wright, and Senior Airman Daisy Vasquez head up this team on a joint mission with the Army National Guard, aiming to introduce students to new experiences, resources, and career possibilities, ultimately fostering long-term positive outcomes for both individuals and their communities.

“Attending these ‘Mentoring Mondays,’ brings a sense of excitement and anticipation to the kids of this Title I school,” Master Sgt. Domenzain-Rodriguez said, “Students eagerly await the arrival of their mentors, knowing that each visit brings not only valuable lessons but also the chance to interact with inspiring role models.”

During each session, pre-planned lessons are taught to the students.

Domezain-Rodriguez continued, “We believe the program’s impact extends far beyond the classroom walls. By exposing students to diverse career paths and real-world experiences, the mentors aim to broaden their horizons and ignite a passion for learning and exploration.”

“Sharp Shooters’ involvement in ‘Mentoring Mondays’ is more than just an educational program,” Chief Master Sgt. Gerardo Navarro, also assigned to 232nd Combat Training Squadron said, “It’s an inspiration for the students of Matt Kelly Elementary. For many, the presence of military mentors serves as a source of encouragement and support, instilling confidence and resilience in the face of challenges.”

It’s this type of volunteer opportunity that enables members of the Nevada Air National Guard to execute one of the commander’s priorities, “Empowering Airmen and Families”—by Highlighting the Wing’s efforts to foster a sense of community and belonging among Airmen and their families. By doing community service projects and other activities that strengthen bonds and enhance the quality of life for military families both on and off base.

FSS Fun Fact #2 - Annual Review of Personnel Records

By: Senior Master Sgt. Amy Baker
152nd Force Support Squadron

High Rollers,

Did you know that each year on your birthday you will receive an email from myFSS containing a birthday message? This message has two purposes. One, it's to wish you a happy birthday and two, it's reminding you to review your personnel records. It is mandatory for you to update your records at least annually, when deploying, or when a life changing event occurs (e.g., marriage, divorce) so, please do not disregard those birthday messages. A few critical items requiring review:

Servicemembers' Group Life Insurance (SGLI): You can obtain more information about your Servicemembers' Group Life Insurance (SGLI) and Family Servicemembers' Group Life Insurance (FSGLI) via the SGLI Online Enrollment System (SOES). SOES can be accessed by logging into Milconnect and clicking the SOES link under the Benefits tab.

Record of Emergency Data (RED): This document contains emergency contact information should you become severely ill, injured, wounded, or deceased. It also allows you to designate the Person Authorized to Direct Disposition (PADD) of your remains, beneficiaries for Death Gratuity (DG) and Arrears of Pay (AOP). You can obtain more information about your RED on myFSS or update via AFPC Secure applications: <https://w45.afpc.randolph.af.mil/AFPCSecureNet40/CheckPortal.aspx>.

Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS): Contains information for each uniformed service member (active duty, retired, or a member of a Reserve Component), US-sponsored foreign military, Department of Defense (DoD) and uniformed services civilians, other personnel as directed by the DoD (including the patient population serviced through the Military Health Services System), and their eligible family members. DEERS registration is required for TRICARE eligibility and enrollment. Incorrect information in the DEERS database can cause problems with TRICARE claims as well as other health care benefits, so it is critical to maintain your DEERS information.

Air Force Personnel Accountability and Assessment System (AFPAAS): When emergencies or natural disasters occur, it is imperative to account for you and your family members. Please validate your information in the AFPAAS website. You can obtain more information about AFPAAS on myFSS or validate your AFPAAS via AFPAAS.

FSS has created how-to guides to assist you with updating your information in the various systems mentioned above. Should you have any questions, please call Customer Service at 788-4523.
