Men & Women have different expectations of marriage

By Ch. Maj. Donny Crandell
152nd Airlift Wing Chaplain

marriage minute

When a man falls in love with a woman, his thoughts go something like this: I love her, she's great—in fact, she is perfect. I love her just the way she is and I hope she never changes.

On the other hand, when a woman falls in love with a man, her thoughts are generally something like this: I love him, he's great, but he really needs some work.

Women like to work on relationships, and because marriage represents her greatest relationship, she enjoys working on it. But the thought of working on any relationship makes most men feel ill.

You see, to a man, work is something you do to earn money. Relationships don't fit into a man's definition of work.

We think relationship are the one class of things we should never have to work on."

High Rollers deliver Santa and Mrs. Claus to Reno-Tahoe International Airport

By Senior Master Sgt. Paula Macomber
152nd Airlift Wing Public Affairs

The High Rollers delivered Santa and Mrs. Claus to Reno-Tahoe International Airport on Saturday, Dec. 8. This was a part of a unique event called Operation Santa Claus where hundreds of presents were delivered to families with the Northern Nevada's Children's Cabinet. About 20 aircraft from throughout the region participated in an aircraft parade and used the planes to bring gifts for those less fortunate. Even some University of Nevada Wolf Pack football players, cheerleaders and the mascots, along with North Valleys High School Junior ROTC, McQueen High School Choir all showed up to support this community event. Nevada Air National Guard "High Rollers" have helped the Evelyn Mount Food Distribution both at Thanksgiving and Christmas for the past eight years. The High Roller leading the pack with this effort has been Master Sgt. Caroline Cousineau of the 152nd Airlift Wing Comptroller Flight.

"It has been eight fantastic seasons and I am so sad to see it end," Cousineau said, "I will miss all the hugs from folks in our community that were so grateful for our help. I will miss helping the parents and kids pick out toys for Christmas, but most of all I will miss the camaraderie it brought to our guard family."

Evelyn Mount, urged by family and doctors to retire this year, after leading the food drive the past 40 years, hung up her hat with
