Chaplain's Corner

MERCY

By Ch. Maj. Donny Crandell
152nd Airlift Wing Chaplain

It was an historic sermon when Jesus gathered his disciples to teach them the infamous sermon called, "The Sermon on the Mount." Paramount to that sermon are the first twelve verses, (Matthew 5:1-12).

One of the key thoughts in those verses is when Jesus said, "Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy." How awesome would it be if you were so filled with mercy, (because of Jesus presence in your life), that it flowed out of you to: forgive others who have hurt you; empathize with other people who are hurting and motivated you to follow Christ...no matter what? That's the blessed state that we can all live in according to Jesus.

This reality doesn't have anything to do with outward circumstances like: getting a raise; being promoted or being com-

Reno Veterans Day parade honors local WWI hero

By 2nd Lt. Emerson Marcus
Nevada National Guard State Historian

Darrell Melville Dunkle left deep roots in Reno when he enlisted in the U.S. Army in 1917.

He left his undergraduate program and position on the University of Nevada football team. He left his parents. And he left his wife, Edith Duarte, whom he married Dec. 19, 1917 — five months before he entered the trenches in France during World War I.

Dunkle, born and raised in the Biggest Little City, did not return; his life cut short at 21. He was one of more than 116,000
